

GUIDE TO SELECTING YOUR CSA SHARE LEVEL

Use the following list to help guide you in deciding how much to pay for your CSA share. Check off each statement that applies to you and your family. This exercise is for you alone: use it to honestly assess your ability to support Quail Hill Farm with your membership.

- I own the home I live in.
- I own more than one home.
- I travel recreationally.
- I don't have significant debt.
- I don't have significant medical expenses.
- I have investments or a retirement account.
- I have access to family money and resources in times of need.
- I work part-time, by choice.
- I am able to work from home during the pandemic.
- I am able to hire staff to help with cooking, cleaning, child care, in-home tutoring or home health care out-of-pocket.
- I don't receive public assistance (SNAP, SSI, housing assistance).
- I am not supporting children or dependents.
- I have inherited money, property, and other assets from family members.
- My annual household income is over $106,000 (2019 median for households in Suffolk County)

If you can check off 0-2 bullets, consider paying at the Seed level.

If you can check off 3-6 boxes, consider paying at the Sprout level.

If you can check off 7-12 boxes, consider paying at the Standard level.

If you can check off 12-14 of the bullets, consider paying at a Contributor level.

Please do not submit this sheet with your CSA share form.
